Parish Mission Statement
We, the parishioners of St. Thomas More Catholic Church, Mooresville, IN, as members of the Body of Christ, and inspired by our patron saint commit ourselves...
• To grow in understanding and living God’s word and sacraments as defenders of the Catholic faith
• To be responsible stewards of God’s gifts/blessings and grow in generosity of those gifts
• To serve those in need and reflect God’s mercy in all our efforts

“Pray for me as I will for thee
that we may merrily meet in heaven.”

“Pray for me as I will for thee
that we may merrily meet in heaven.”
Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Can a mother forget her suckling child, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even though she forget, I will never forget you (Is 49:14-15). The assurance of a loving God continues to echo in the history of salvation and in our hearts. There is only one who will never abandon you. Everything and everyone will sometime or other forget us, abandon us; none but the Lord’s love is steadfast and everlasting. Therefore, trust in Him and not the things and persons of this world. Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving are the three hallmarks of the season of Lent. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are the only two days of obligatory fasting in the Church today. The Church, in the wake of conciliar reforms of 1960’s, while allowing a relaxation of the abstinence laws on Fridays throughout the year, intended nevertheless that every Friday of the year be marked by some form of sacrifice or penance and much more all the Fridays of Lent. Why is it important to fast and abstain? What are the biblical and theological significance? With Ash Wednesday we enter into the most important and holy season of grace! Lent. These forty days remind us of the 40 years of the journey of the Israelites through the desert, forty days of Moses’ fasting, forty days of the Lord’s fasting prior to His baptism and public ministry. Perhaps the earliest post-biblical reference to fasting comes from Didache (c. 110 AD), a very early Christian summary of Christian moral life and liturgical practice. During that period the Christians fasted on Wednesdays and Fridays (two days a week) while the Jews fasted on Mondays and Thursdays). Further Didache urges candidates for baptism, as well as the baptized and any other member of the community who can, to fast for at least a couple of days prior to the celebration. This is the remote origin of Lenten fast, and this practice is advocated as well by Justin Martyr (155 AD) and Hippolytus of Rome (220AD). Each year during the season of Lent, the entire Church is in solidarity with those preparing for Easter sacraments, and one of the most common expressions of this solidarity is the practice of fasting.

Fasting clearly is a means of self denial and self discipline, and hence our external observances are meant to help our internal disposition and discipline. A second century writing by The Shepherd of Hermas suggests “fasting be made purposeful”; my fasting/self denial should make me more generous to those in need-which in OT was widows and orphans. Pope Benedict XVI in his encyclical made it clear that the entire social mission of the Church is rooted in Christ’s Sacrifice. We are entering into Lent with a focus of the supreme sacrifice of Jesus for the redemption of the world. He did not count the cost or pain involved to save each one of us. The direction given by the US Bishops’ Conference while emphasizing the teachings of Pope Paul VI states: “We are required by Church law to observe the prescribed days of fasting and abstinence according to the fifth precept of the Church.” In 1966 Pope Paul VI issued his apostolic constitution on penance, Paeniternini, which states: The time of Lent preserves its penitential character. The days of penitence to be observed under obligation throughout the Church are all Fridays, Ash Wednesday, which is the first day of “Grande Quaresima” (Great Lent) and Good Friday, because on that day Christ suffered in the flesh and died for us. It does not say or encourage us to take to alternatives although it does not prohibit to have one full meal. To the Law of abstinence those are bound who have completed their 16th year of age. To the Law of fast those of the faithful are bound who have completed their 18th year and up until the beginning of their 60th year. (However, these are only guidelines but anyone either below this age or above this age are encouraged to fast and make penances if their health conditions do permit). The pastors of souls and parents should see to it with particular care that they are educated to a true sense of penitence. “Wherefore, we ask, urgently and prayerfully, that we, as people of God, make of the entire lenten season a period of special penitential observance. Following the instructions of the Holy See, we declare that the obligation both to fast and to abstain from meat, an obligation under more strict formality by our fathers in the faith, still binds on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. No Catholic Christian will lightly excuse himself from so hallowed an obligation on the Wednesday which solemnly opens the Lenten season and on Good Friday, which commemorates the most supreme sacrifice of Jesus submitting His flesh and blood to the Father on the cross as an offering for our sake. The Spirit of the Church and the traditions that are handed down to us have been either watered down or misunderstood by many. Every sacrifice we make is out of love. Love without sacrifice is not Love; sacrifice without Love is not sacrifice. Jesus forgave the sinful woman at Simon the Pharisee’s house. Jesus tells something very remarkable there: (Lk 7:47). “So I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven, hence, she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little”. We live in a world that is craving to satisfy the ‘Flesh’. Jesus the son of man also was tempted but the tempter couldn’t get the better of Jesus as a result of His forty days of fasting, praying and discerning the will of God. May these 40 days of Lent be a time of our own experience in the desert, of self denial, moving away from the desires of the flesh, but living in His Spirit that leads us to eternal life. The flesh begets flesh while the Spirit begets Spirit and life. We are not children of the flesh but children of the Spirit and light. For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live (Rom 8:13).

Sincerely in Christ, Father Francis J. Kalapurackal, Administrator

Project Rachel Retreat: March 31-April 1, 2017 and July 28-July 30, 2017

“There is no grief like the grief that does not speak.” Henry Longfellow. The grief over an abortion experience is often so deep that it seems to be silent. Women and men may bear this burden for years thinking that there is no hope of forgiveness or peace. A Project Rachel Retreats will be held March 31-April 1, 2017, and July 28-July 30, 2017, in the greater Indianapolis area. This retreat is a safe place to renew and rebuild hearts broken from abortion. It offers a confidential environment where individuals can begin the process of healing. For more information and to register e-mail projectrachel@archindy.org or call (317) 452-0054.

Race for Vocations

Please join us as we kick off the Race for Vocations! Our prayer is to continue to raise awareness for vocations by bringing the sacred to the secular. The Race for Vocations takes place within the One America Festival Mini Marathon and 5K and is sponsored by the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and the Diocese of Lafayette in Indiana.

The Race for Vocations welcomes people of all ages to run/walk in the mini or 5k to both promote and pray for vocations to the priesthood, consecrated life, sacred married life and sacred single life. Hundreds of participants pray while they train, attend the Mass for Vocations the Friday night before the race and then run/walk in the mini or 5K. Participants wear vocations runner-shirts that create a greater awareness of Catholic vocations. The race began in 2008 and since then literally thousands of prayers have been offered and hundreds of runners have participated. Please join the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and the Diocese of Lafayette this year as we Race for Vocations by, “competing well, finishing the race and keeping the faith.” II Timothy 4:7! The Race for Vocations is on Saturday, May 6 2017.

Register for the Race for Vocations at http://raceforvocations.org/.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER
MARCH 3, 2017 at ST. ANN’S
6350 S. MOORESVILLE RD., INDY

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER is an ecumenical celebration of Informed Prayer and Prayerful Action. Women, men and children in more than 170 countries will celebrate WDP. This year’s theme is “Am I being unfair to you?” written by the WDP Committee of the Philippines. The focus is on Matthew 20:1-16, the parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard. The Bible Study and Worship service invite us to explore concepts of economic justice in the Philippines’ context and around the world, and our response in light of God’s generosity. A reception will follow the service in the Social Hall. Mark your calendars and join us for prayer, worship and fellowship. God Bless!
